

[Invitation letter model]

For a Canadian Tourism Visa

This template serves as a model of invitation letter for a Canadian temporary resident visa compiled by Martineau & Mindicanu – The Art of Immigration. There is no clear format required by the government, however below you will find the main details that need to be included in your letter of invitation. This document is just a model meant to serve as guidance and is not to be copied in its totality. It is important however to include the details below in order to comply with the requirements of the Canadian government.

Note: Most embassies to not require a legalization of the invitation letter, a simple signature suffices. Certain embassies ask for a translation of all submitted documents. In this case, it is better to prepare the letter directly in English or French. Presenting a letter of invitation does not guarantee a visa will be issued. Visa officers assess your application to decide whether you meet the terms of Canada's immigration law. For further information, visit the website of the embassy responsible in your country or contact us at info@artim.ca.
